

If it were not for xm radio I would not recieve radio service most nof my working day. It keeps me entertained on long very boring drives. And if I could have recieved "free" radio service to the Quality that xm gives I would not have to be writing this letter.